* Team captains

The Ohio Know Nothings competed in the A Division and finished nationally 23rd out of 42 teams and 9th out of 16 teams at the Penn State site. Ohio Bull Moose and Progressives competed in the B Division. Respectively, they finished nationally 20th and 54th out of 83 teams and 12th and 30th out of 50 teams at the Penn State site. All three teams' national rankings have improved, thanks to our new coaches: Jon Graetz, Mark Musetti, and Tim Cardinal.

The high scorers on Ohio Know Nothings were Carlos Dominguez of North Ridgeville, Dennis Tseng of Mason and Travis Hance of Lakota West. They each scored a 6.

2008 ARML Results

The high scorers on Ohio Bull Moose were Alex Krause of Cleveland Heights, Enoch Kuo of Revere and Ian Copley of Village Academy. They each scored a 5.

The high scorer on Ohio Progressives was Corinne Peters of Sycamore. She scored a 4. This was very impressive, because Corinne was only 9th grade and a first year participant.

Every year, each team elects the Most Inspirational Team Member. This year's MITMs were: Jeff Graetz for Know Nothings, Alex Krause for Bull Moose and Mario Carneiro for Progressives.

There were 11 seniors on this year's team. They were: Alex Krause, Apoorv Khandewal, Ben Fulan, Chris Mohr, David Hu, David Weber, Jacob Emmert-Aronson, Jay Wang, Jonathan Gleason, Laney Kuenzel and Nick Sakian. Many thanks to these seniors for their participation, and for the mentorship and leadership they provided during their most hectic stretch of time. Special thanks go to Ben Fulan, Chris Mohr, Jay Wang and Laney Kuenzel. They had been Ohio ARML members since 2005. Ohio ARML will always remember them!

We sadly say "goodbye" to these seniors, but sincerely wish them successful college careers.
